

Cleveland Merchants Cheer Griff--Welsh and Lowe Fight Tonight

Griffith Is Cheered by Merchants of Cleveland

Second Game of National-Indian Series Is Postponed, but "Old Fox" Is Banqueted by Spirited Sixth-City Rooters at Luncheon by Advertising Men.

By WILLIAM PEET.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 7.—More rain today made it impossible to stage the second game of the series between the Nationals and Cleveland Indians, but the moisture gave Clark Griffith a chance to display his ability as an orator, and the Old Fox batted 1,000 in the speech-making league. The Cleveland Advertising Club, composed of the real merchants and public-spirited men of the Sixth City, had reserved 3,000 seats for today's game and planned for a monster luncheon at the Hotel Statler about noon. The game was called off at 11 o'clock and Clark Griffith, together with his entire official baseball family, attended the luncheon as guests of the advertising men.

Griffith was cheered to the echo when he was introduced and the house gave him a tremendous ovation when he had finished a short speech substantially as follows:

"I can't win the pennant I hope Cleveland does. "Tris Speaker, Hans Wagner and Walter Johnson are the three greatest players the game has ever known, and this beats the list."

Speaker was also present and in his speech he said: "I suppose in return for Griffith's compliment I ought to say he is the greatest manager in the world, but I can't give him better than second place, as our own Cleveland Club has a manager who is a great man."

"He has the proper spirit and certainly every one of us who plays on the Cleveland club would go to the limit for Les Fohl."

In addition to Griffith and Speaker, Owner Jim Dunn and Vice President Robert McRoy, of the Indians, also had a few words to say.

William Gaston Rose, retiring president of the Ad Men's Club, mixed advertising with base ball when he presented a poem on Riley. The guy who struck out Casey. The poem ended with the lines, by Riley: "I struck Casey out, but he got the fame. Because he knew the advertising game."

Tomorrow's game seems assured, as the storm which has been soured the Sixth City all day abated late in the afternoon and by 5 o'clock the sun peeped out. The local forecaster has promised fair weather for Thursday. Allah be praised.

Calling off today's battle has caused Griffith to make a shift in his line-up, also a different pitching selection.

On the theory that Stanley Coveleski will be in the box for the Indians, Harry Harper has been nominated to oppose him.

Joe Judge will be on first base, Shank in left field, and Danny Moeller in right garden for the reason that Moeller always hits the ball hard on the Cleveland grounds.

Both Ray Morgan and Eddie Foster, who have been suffering from minor ailments, are rather pleased at the enforced lay-off for a couple of days. Ray said tonight that his slightly sprained ankle was a whole lot better. Foster declares his bum wrist will now permit all kinds of liberties.

Pitcher Dumont is suffering from a sore throat and has been ailing all day.

AMATEUR ASSOCIATION WILL MEET TONIGHT

President Robert H. Young, of the local amateur baseball association, has called a meeting for tonight at Spaulding's store in Fourteenth street northwest, when a line will be obtained on the number of local amateur ball teams who will parade in the preparedness celebration on June 14.

All presidents of the local leagues, managers and players of local amateur teams are requested to be on hand.

POOR GOLF PLAYED IN BIG TOURNAMENT

Mrs. Frailey Wins from Miss Owen in Best Match in Women's Tourney, 3 Up and 1 to Go.

For some unaccountable reason, none of the scores made in the semi-final round matches in the Chevy Chase Club championship were very good when the pairs met in the three eights yesterday.

Mrs. Frailey defeated Miss Owen in the first eight, by 3 up and 1 in the closest match played. At the sixteenth hole, Mrs. Frailey was 2 up and the match ended on the next when Mrs. Frailey won it.

In all of the other matches, one player outclassed the other so badly that the result was never in doubt after the first few holes. The summary:

First eight, semi-final round—Miss Barney defeated Mrs. Jackson, by 3 up and 2. Mrs. Frailey defeated Miss Owen, by 3 up and 1.

Second eight, semi-final round—Mrs. Thom defeated Mrs. Ekenberg, by 7 up and 5. Miss Hacker defeated Mrs. Church, by 8 up and 7.

Third eight, semi-final round—Mrs. Cassella defeated Miss Tracy, by 6 up and 4. Mrs. Fortescue defeated Mrs. Hagner, by 7 up and 6.

The final rounds in the three-sixteens will be played this morning starting at 10 o'clock. In the first flight, Miss Barney will meet Mrs. Frailey. In the second flight, Mrs. Thom and Miss Hacker will be the contestants, while Mrs. Cassella and Mrs. Fortescue will fight it out in the third eight.

The final round match between Conrad B. Doyle and Henry C. Breck for the title in the Middle Atlantic States tennis tournament which was scheduled for yesterday afternoon on the Columbia Country Club courts was postponed on account of rain until tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. This is the second time rain has interfered with this match, as the two started to play last Saturday, and Doyle had Breck 2-2 in the first set when hostilities were called off on account of a heavy shower which came up unexpectedly and almost flooded the courts.

BROWNIES CAPTURE OVERTIME BATTLE

St. Louis, June 7.—The Browns made it five straight victories by one run, when they ripped the Yankees, 6 to 5, in twelve innings today. Fielding featured. ## SHEEHAN NAMED PILOT OF TECH HIGH TEAM

"Mon" Sheehan, star half-miler at Tech, was chosen to captain the 1916-1917 track team. For the past three years Sheehan has been Tech's heaviest scorer in all the meets, winning the half mile in the annual spring meet for the past three years and also getting a second place this spring in the 220-yard dash, which shows that he is also a dash man of high caliber.

Sheehan would have made the football team last fall if he had not broken his ankle before the season got under way and great things are expected of him both in track and football next year.

Welsh and Lowe Await The Sound of the Gong

World Light-weight Champion Will Meet Local Pride in Ten-Round Battle Tonight.

GOOD "PRELIMS" BOOKED

Twelve years ago local fight fans will remember world champions appearing here in exhibition and ten round decision encounters. In those days Kernan's Lyceum Theater was running at top speed and the leading fight artists of the world were meeting all comers at the Pennsylvania avenue playhouse in four round battles, in which these world champions agreed to kazo on all comers in four rounds.

This was back in the year of 1894, when, well-known world's titleholders appeared here, such as Joe Gans, Jack Dally, Al Sweigert, Joe Walcott, Bill Payne, Peter Maher, Joe Walcott and Bob Fitzsimmons. Now in our midst is Freddy Welsh, the world light-weight champion, who is slated to battle Tommy Lowe, the pride of the local fight circles, in a ten-round battle at the Maryland Athletic and Social Club at Ardmore, Md., tonight.

After twelve years of waiting the local fight fans will witness a real champion tonight. Although the fight critics throughout the country claim that the world's light-weight champion is nothing but a dancing master, Harry Pollock his manager has assured the followers that Welsh will fight all the way and try his hardest to hang the kazo tally on the local pride.

Besides the world light-weight champion and the local pride, Tommy Lowe, Kid Williams the bantam-weight champion, George Cheney, claimant for the feather-weight title, and Henry Blitzer, manager of these two fast Baltimore youngsters will be at the ringside. Cheney has been camping on the trail of Welsh for a long time and will challenge the world's light-weight at the ringside tonight.

Lowe and Welsh are ready for this affair. Tommy finished off his work yesterday for this bout in a four-round sparring match with Buddy Ray and Young Thomas. He claims to be in the best of shape and in reference to his chances said:

"I have nothing to lose. Welsh is stacking his glory against nothing that I have to show and he has all to lose. I have been fighting for the past ten years and have never been kayed and if this Welsh can hang the wallop on me I will be nothing out, while if I hang the knockout punch on him, oh, what a difference it will make."

Matchmaker Freeman has completed all arrangements for this show. Billy Roche, the well-known New York referee, will handle the main bout which is scheduled to go ten rounds. P. F. O'Connor, the well-known local referee, will act as the third man in the ring in the other ten-round bouts.

In what will be the semi-windup Jack Moran, the local middle-weight, will battle Mike Uraine over a ten-round route, while Bert Green and Turk Smith are slated to go ten rounds in the other star attraction. Young Kelly, of Indian Head, is slated to meet Benny Kauffman, of Philadelphia, in a four-rounder, while a battle royal between colored gladiators from Baltimore and Washington will mix it over a four-round route in the curtain raiser.

Special car service has been obtained for this battle. The cars will run over the W. B. and A. railroad every ten minutes after 6 o'clock from Fifteenth and H streets northeast, while cars can be secured from Fifteenth and New York avenue northwest every twenty minutes after this hour. ## "A sensible cigarette—that's what I want"

There are a number of good cigarettes on the market—Fatimas are not the only ones.

But Fatimas are the best-liked and best-selling of all cigarettes costing over 5c.

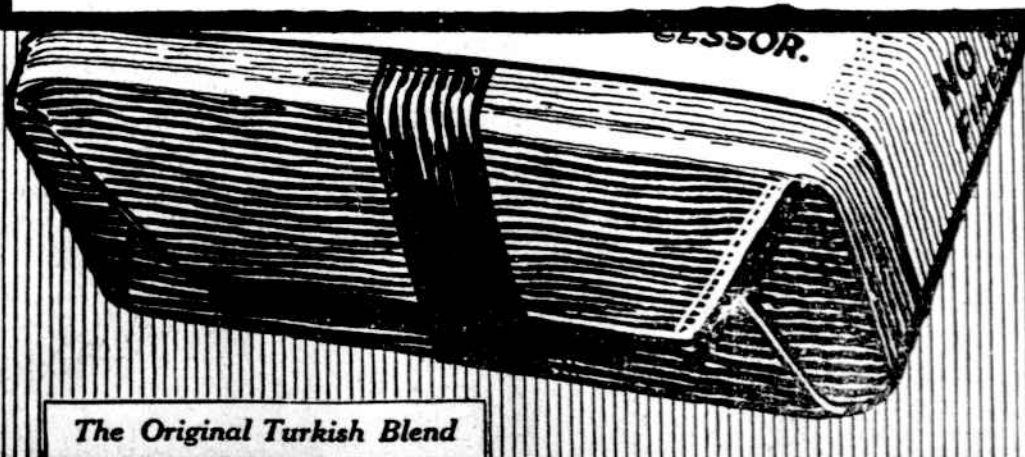

Of course, your taste may be different—you may not like Fatimas as well as all these thousands of other men do.

But you can't deny that they are worth trying—not only for the delicious taste that has made them so famous, but also to see just how SENSIBLE they really are—sensible because Fatimas are cool and comfortable to the throat and tongue at all times and because they leave no "mean" or "heady" feeling even though you may smoke more often than usual.

If you would prove how really sensible a cigarette can be—try Fatimas.
